April 23 Lecture by Dr. Joseph Wheelwright, sponsored jointly by Cathedral Associates, St. Mark's Cathedral

JUNG'S PSYCHOLOGICAL TYPES

Joseph Wheelwright, M.D., is a senior member of the C.G. Institute in San Francisco, member of the Executive Committee and former President of the International Association of Analytical Psychology. Dr. Wheelwright, who is co-author of the Grey-Wheelwright test of personality types, is widely known as one of the most distinguished Jungian analysts in the U.S. and one of the first and most important in establishing Jungian psychology in this country.

TIME: 8 p.m. LOCATION: Bloedel Auditorium, St. Mark's, 1245 Tenth Ave E.

Tickets at the door. A special announcement will be sent shortly before the event.

April 24 Seminar by Joseph Wheelwright

JUNG: WITH FREUD, AND AFTER

This event should be particularly interesting as Dr. Wheelwright was one of the main participants in a colloquium, held in San Francisco last fall, on Freud, Jung and the future of depth psychology. His two-hour dialogue with Erik Erikson about the Freud-Jung letters has been videotaped; we hope to show it in Seattle next fall.

TIME AND LOCATION to be announced to registered participants

COST: Members $ 6, non-members $ 8

Please use attached registration slip

!!!! ATTENTION Members of FJPN !!!!
