NEWSLETTER
JANUARY 1979

All meetings and programs will be held at 6328 - 22nd Avenue N.E., Seattle, unless otherwise noted.

Members who want to use our facilities for independently organized discussion groups should call Nancy Alvord, 523-3536.

February 5 MIME Julie Anderson, mime and drama teacher at Washington
Monday High School in Tacoma, will give a mime presentation ex-8:00 p.m. pressing the human dilemma with examples, partly symbolic, partly realistic, from human life. Ms. Anderson has had more than four years' training in mime with Jewel Walker and Ron Wilson Claude.
This year she is developing her own show in which she intends to get away from illusionary mime and hopes to reeducate people to see mime as a theatrical form.

Saturday, May 12

JULIAN WHITE

1:30 p.m. MUSIC AS METAPHOR

Julian White, distinguished Bay Area pianist, is on the faculty of the music department of Mills College. He is acclaimed nationally, not only as a performing artist, but as a teacher who brings music into the lives of many who consider themselves "unmusical." Mr. White will explore the relationships between music and our personal symbolic expressions of feeling and understanding. He will discuss and perform keyboard works of the masters as he guides the seminar participants through their archetypal imagery.

CAMPUS CHRISTIAN MINISTRY, 4525 - 19th Avenue N.E., Seattle, Washington.
